

EXECUTIVE PROGRAMME IN CHINESE LANGUAGE (CANTONESE/MANDARIN)

PROGRAMME

GENERAL OVERVIEW

The executive programme of the Chinese Language Centre, HKU offers a comprehensive and rigorous series of Cantonese and Mandarin courses for professionals and others who want to develop their Chinese language skills.

The programme consists of lectures plus Chinese culture immersion experiences. The one-year curriculum is comprised of three terms with classes meeting six hours per week, with experiential classes by arrangement at various days and times. Language skills advance progressively over the three terms, though students can also select individual terms depending on background skill-level and interest.

EVENING CLASS CHOICES

There are three evening class choices:

1. Cantonese for Non-Chinese Speaking Students
2. Cantonese for Students with a Foundation in Mandarin or a Mandarin Speaking Background
3. Putonghua for Non-Chinese Speaking Students

OUR PROGRAMME

Allows students to develop a solid foundation, and pave the way to higher levels of language use and further study.

Develops students' communication skills and appreciation of Chinese culture through lively, direct experience.
